their fellows who had done much harm. Now I could begin to believe, to begin again, to ...
The sound announcing someone at the door of his office dismantled.

- Who is it? . - Asked over the intercom.

- Antonio Perses, Mr. Marcos. Bring official notification of the granting of all their demands. Since I know this is a happy event for you personally wanted to fetch it. Besides I am very pleased to inform you without false modesty that I have much of the credit that this has worked out well. -

Mark grinned full of happiness. A good man waited outside her door waiting for them to open.

- In an instant I open Mr. Perses and I'm glad to have you here. -

Mark walked with long strides the great distance that separated him from the door. Anxiety consumed him. I was going to meet a real man, sensitive, kind, committed. He reached the door and pressed the release button.

What he saw brought him down. Brilliant ... brilliant.

- Good morning, Mr. Marcos. -

Tall, with a briefcase in hand, faceless, just brilliant.

- This is the notification of their demands. Not be dismissed but honorable retreat ... -

Covered the entire doorway. Shiny, silver. His eyes, red, bright, bright.

- ... Without prejudice to payment of their fees that consist ... -

I had heard of them but had never seen ... bright ... so bright.

- ... Detail at the bottom of the document. I hope this you happy, Mr. Marcos. -

No. It was not. I was not because Antonio Perses was not human. Antonio Perses was a shiny metal robot.
